This matter comes before the Public Service Commission of South Carolina (the Commission) on the request of the Salvation Army in Anderson, South Carolina for a waiver of our COCOT guidelines to allow for the blocking of incoming calls at its pay telephones. The request was co-signed by a member of the Anderson Police Department.

The request is stated to be to ensure the safety and security of employees and patrons of the organization.

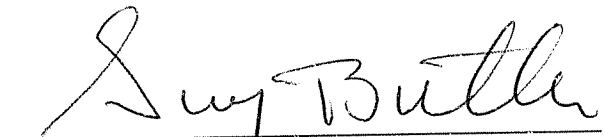

We have examined the request and have determined that the waiver of the COCOT guidelines should be granted, so that incoming calls to the requested payphones may be blocked.
